Celebrating Coronado Artists

Coronado and the Cultural Arts Commission encourages the use of public spaces for public art and cultural events. The Orange Avenue Banner Program installs banners throughout the year on Orange Avenue from First Street to Avenida de las Arenas. The banners add vitality and color to the cityscape and promote the community. The program is made possible through a generous grant from Discover Coronado and the program is administered by the Cultural Arts Commission. For more information about the program, visit CoronadoARTS.com.

S Gallery

The Spreckels Gallery located in the John D. Spreckels Center, was established in July 2019 and highlights the artwork of local artists who are 50+ in age. Approximately two exhibitions will be mounted each year in the facility.

The first exhibition in the Spreckels Gallery featured member art from the Coronado Art Association celebrating 70 years in Coronado in 2019.

C3 Gallery

The C3 Gallery located in the Coronado Community Center, was established in November 2015 during the City of Coronado's 125th Celebration.

The first exhibition was "Visions of Coronado" featuring 25 local artists. Since opening, the gallery has hosted over a dozen exhibitions featuring over 150 artists.

The gallery was underwritten through grants from the City of Coronado, The Coronado Woman's Club, The Coronado Art Association, and private donations from over 50 donors.

The C3 Gallery exhibitions are a program of the Coronado Cultural Arts Commission (CAC) and fulfills a top priority for the CAC to establish local venues for ongoing art exhibitions by community artists.

The art we leave behind will be this community's gift to those who come after us, contributing to the rich texture of the fabric that is the story of our time, our place and our lives.

CORONADO

Public Art Program

The City of Coronado Public Art Program was created to promote awareness and appreciation of the works of art already in place in our community and to ensure the public plays a significant role in the future development of our city's public spaces.

One need not be an art expert to experience the enrichment that art can bring to our daily lives. Historically, art has surprised, delighted, energized, and, at times, has riled people. Art has defined civilizations since the beginning of recorded history.
